

Any attempt to prevent satellite radio from broadcasting weather and other information should be stopped. Satellite radio provides good information which is not cluttered by the junk on over the air broadcasts.